Psychoeducation Training Autism Confidentiality Agreement.

You are required to read this agreement and confirm that you have read, understood and agreed to it when registering for a place on this training programme.

Psychoeducation Training provides parents and carers with the opportunity to learn about autism and reflect on their understanding. It also allows them to connect online with other parents and carers of children diagnosed with autism, share ideas, and learn about available support.

As a participant in our Psychoeducation Training, you acknowledge the importance of maintaining the confidentiality of all shared information, including but not limited to personal data, in accordance with the UK Data Protection Act 2018 (DPA 2018) and the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). To ensure a safe and private environment for all attendees, you agree to the following terms:

1. No Recording or Filming: You will not record or film any part of the online sessions. This includes, but is not limited to, audio recordings, video recordings, and screen captures. This prohibition is essential to protect the privacy and confidentiality of all participants.
2. Confidentiality: You will respect the privacy of other participants and not disclose any personal information shared during the sessions. This includes refraining from discussing or sharing any details about other participants or their children outside of the training sessions.
3. Respectful Participation: You will engage in the sessions respectfully, ensuring that all interactions are supportive and considerate of others' experiences and perspectives.

When completing your online registration form, you confirm your understanding and agreement to these terms. Failure to do so could result in immediate removal from the Psychoeducation Training and legal consequences, further details of which can be obtained from our Data Protection Officer by email to enfield.data.protection.officer@Enfield.gov.uk. Your commitment to these guidelines helps create a trusting and secure environment for everyone involved.

You will be asked to confirm your agreement when you register for your place using the online registration form.

Registration for this training is via the EASA website.
